A deep sonic journey of spaciousness, rhythm, emotion, movement.
a place to escape to ... to feel ... to rest ... and dance to.

the stars are winking at me, glowing with unknown mysteries of life, the universe and beyond. they sparkle and wink wink back at me reassuringly. the grand expansiveness - questions glimmer endless thoughts - your starry gaze winks. 🌱 after the rain. from under the fern. beneath the moss. deeper than the quartz upon which it clings. I listen 🌱 the Cariboo foothills fancy nudging the Rockies with their fanciful whisperings of grandeur. 🌱 a rose arose from a rose, layers and depths of memories that come and go and twist like a breezethrough the rosarium. inhale. exhale. hold on to this moment. a rose from a rose. swimmingly pink and laughing. a lily of grace 🌱 musing. amusing. the minstrel played the Perth Manor Muse while the guests dined in the manner of a manor. it was my muse. and I certainly was, amused! 🌱 once upon a time, I lived in a forest of birch and hemlock, aspen, oak and pine. these canopies my ancestors walked beneath. rising towards the constancy of the endless night. ninety sun spirals. shine with gratitude in the soul of the forest. 🌱 three score say no more. one step in front of the next. time to feel sublime. 🌱 the sea change transforms, washes anew what was to what will be. the wave and current of time beautifully. 🌱 wait. breathe. does waiting wait? or is it simply me. is waiting so impatient. while patience waits so gently. breathe. wait. 🌱 along the way the trees blur past me. fields roll gently. and the mountains stand strong. 🌱 with love in your heart. all. everything. love. 🌱 quiet my soul in the stillness of now.
